My Adoption Story

*When my father and my mother
forsake me,
then the Lord will take me up.*

Psalms 27:10

I arrived at Case de Paz on June 3, 2014. I was only 11 days old. Everyone was so happy to welcome me to the "family". The called me Genesis.

hello

I was so tiny when I got to Casa de Paz that none of the baby clothes fit me. Even the doll clothes were a little big.

My mommy and daddy went to buy the smallest baby clothes that they could find in Pacasmayo. I was so small that the burp cloth was big enough to be my blanket.

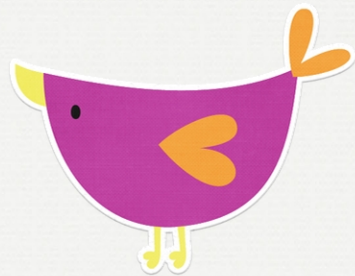

Even though I was so small and I had a very misshaped head, my mommy and daddy loved me right away and thought I was perfect just the way I was.

mommy

My mommy came every day to Casa de Paz to bathe me, dress me, feed me, sing to me and hold and love me and try to keep all the little boys from bugging me too much. My daddy came, too, when he wasn't working. He would always bring me my diapers and wipes, formula and medicine for my allergies and anything else I needed. He even bought me a new hypoallergenic mattress since the one at the orphanage was so old and dusty!

My mommy and daddy decided that they didn't want me to live at the orphanage anymore. They wanted me to come and live with them at their house. They worked very hard to get everything ready for my homecoming.

DATE: October 23, 2014 HAPPY Birthday Daddy!

After several months, the Judge Sylvia Obanda finally said I could go home with mommy and daddy on my Daddy's Birthday! It was also my 5 month birthday so we all celebrated with my Abuela Tuca and Abuelo Horacio when I got home.

Whoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me.
Mark 9:37

In honor of my homecoming, we had a big party and invited all my Casa de Paz family. We had a lot of great food, games, a piñata and even Hermano Carlos Ventura brought his horse and gave all the kids rides.

I am a great traveler! My grandparents came all the way from the United States to celebrate my first birthday with me. We went to Lima and Cusco. I loved riding on the Choo Choo train. We also went to Macchu Pichu. We had lots of fun, but more than anything, I loved getting to know my Grandma Ruth and Papa Jack. They took me everyday for walks and taught me to stand up in my stroller. It's how I like to roll, but my mommy is not happy about it!

DATE: June 2015

June was super busy. We got to go to the open house for the new temple in Trujillo with all of my grandparents. My Grandma Ruth and Papa Jack had to go home to the USA. We celebrated my Abuela Tuca's birthday and we got ready to move to Trujillo to be closer to the courts. As always I am happy baby. Everyone wants me to walk, but I don't get it. I get around just fine on my knees.

We are really loving Trujillo. My new room is purple, but I miss my big bathtub. I loved going to the Circus for the first time. And guess what? I started preschool! No...I am still not walking, but I can go up and down the stairs and get around just fine...so what's all the fuss and rush about?

FELIZ 2016!

My abuelos have really been missing me so we moved to Pimentel to be closer. Our good friends from Trujillo came to visit, go to the beach and visit the Ostrich Rescue. It was so much fun to play with Kamila, Rodrigo y Alejandro. I love playing with friends, but I also love chillin' with my tablet watching Peppa Pig or playing Elmo's ABCs. I love Peruvian food. My favorites are anticuchos, chicken feet soup and cuy.

We went on an awesome trip to the mountains with our good friends the Vigos. It was so much fun. We drove really high up in the mountains on a very windy road.
