

Name: _____

Date: _____

Weekly Newsquiz – November 16

1. Name the town in Northern California that was almost completely destroyed by the "Camp Fire," which set a record for being the state's most deadly and destructive.
2. What world capital, which has a high population density, is known as the "bandwidth capital of the world" for its extensive technological network?
3. Under a new Trump Administration rule, migrants who illegally cross into the U.S. from its southern border with Mexico will no longer be eligible to apply for what?
4. Following the U.S. Midterm Elections, how many political races in Florida were close enough to trigger a recount?
5. In what communist country did satellite images recently detect 12 undeclared missile sites, whose significance was debated by experts?
6. Name the island, which is located in the Irish Sea, where a Swedish art group is placing miniature houses meant to appear as if they'd always been there.
7. What U.S. Congress (a number) was elected in last week's Midterms and will begin meeting on January 3, 2019?
8. What material, which is known as the "mother of all commodities," is the single biggest factor in the price of gasoline?
9. A prison reform bill, for which U.S. President Donald Trump voiced support this week, has already passed in what chamber of the U.S. Congress?
10. What nation of more than 51 million people temporarily grounded all airline flights on Thursday so that its high school students could better focus on college entrance exams?