

10

Name: _____
Date: _____

Weekly Newsquiz – May 10

1. What international landmark and engineering achievement opened 25 years ago on May 6, significantly impacting trade and transportation in Europe?
2. What holiday, which is sometimes mistakenly referred to as "Mexican Independence Day," actually marks the Battle of Puebla?
3. Violence broke out last Friday during a protest along the fence line between Israel and what Palestinian-controlled territory?
4. A debate is taking place over whether modern or historic architecture should replace the fire-damaged parts of what Parisian landmark?
5. To what specific strait have a U.S. carrier strike group and bomber task force been deployed as a means of pressuring and sending a message to Iran?
6. What social media platform did a father and daughter recently use to recreate a Holocaust victim's diary, stirring conversation and controversy?
7. This week, Iran announced it was reducing some of its commitments to an international nuclear deal that was signed in what year?
8. Name the two biggest ridesharing companies in America, who were in the news this week following protests and one company's entry into the U.S. stock market.
9. Most members of China's Uyghur ethnic group follow what religion, which is recognized by limited by China's communist government?
10. What specific kind of giant sandstone blocks, which are common in southern England, were used to construct Stonehenge, though one of them was reinforced with metal rods in the 1950s?